My Dear Garrison,

I had a very fine meeting the night after you left Pittsburgh. The exertion I made on the occasion very much exhausted me. Yesterday I came here for a few days of perfect rest. I shall probably speak on the 12th but not so as to injure myself. I shall on the 14th go to Salem to lecture on the 15th and 16th and from that place I will write you again I hope this will find you safely at home, I will with dear love to Fanny, Franky, & the home, if permissible to Mrs Garrison, Your Own friend
